

PFLUGERVILLE COMMUNITY & SCHOOL DISTRICT

Pflugerville is fifteen miles north of Austin in northeastern Travis County. From 1980 through 1988, new development in Pflugerville made it the fastest growing community in the state. After a slight slowdown during the recession of the late 1980's, the tremendous growth resumed again during the 1990's, which saw the population almost quadruple in size from 4,444 residents in 1990 to 28,038 in 2005. The District serves 18,000 + students on three high schools, five middle schools, and fourteen elementary school campuses. Students are challenged to pursue their talents, reach their potential, and seek post secondary education or technical training.

WEIGHTED GRADING SYSTEM

CLASS RANK/GRADE POINT AVERAGE:

The district uses a weighted 5.0 scale for grade point averaging. All Pre-AP and AP courses receive a higher weight. Students may also attend Austin Community College for dual credit courses, and many on-campus courses are articulated with tech-prep. All courses are used to determine GPA except: Band, Choir, Cheerleading, Drill Team, Physical Education, local and College dual credit courses. The GPA is weighted for Pre-AP and AP courses. Class rank is determined by the cumulated GPA in grades 9-12.
