It is a custom to sing this song before public gatherings to reflect our patriotism for our country. Sing it together. Oh, say! can you see, by the dawn’s early light, What so proudly we hailed at the twilight’s last gleaming, Whose broad stripes and bright stars, through the perilous fight, O’er the ramparts we watched were so gallantly streaming? And the rockets’ red glare, the bombs bursting in air,

First Grade Social Studies Curriculum Bundle #4

	TEACHER NOTE: The Freedom Quilts link in Resources explains how slaves used symbols in quilt patterns to depict their escape to freedom. Literature resources and lesson plans are given.	Gave proof through the night that our flag was still there.          Oh, say, does that Star-Spangled Banner yet wave          O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave?
Social Studies Skills TEKS—The TEKS below are processing TEKS: They are designed to be used to help students process the social studies content TEKS above. In reality, teaching and learning involves using the Social Studies Skills TEKS many times throughout the school year, but these TEKS have been written explicitly into the curriculum only a couple of times each to make sure that they are each taught in depth.
