

FQR ~ Facts/Questions/Reflections

In each column, write down pieces/questions you pull from your reading. Remember to use your critical reading skills as you look closely at the text. All good readers “talk to themselves” as they read. You will notate your thoughts in the chart below.

Facts	Questions	Reflections
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Facts learned that you did not know before (I didn't know that....) • Facts confirmed (I knew that!) 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Questions you have as you read (Who is she? I wonder why?) • Questions that “pop” into your mind (I wonder if this will be solved by the end of the story?) • If you find answers to your questions, either through facts or reflections, draw an arrow to the answer in the appropriate column. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Personal connections (This reminds me of) • Connections to other texts (This is just like the story/novel/ TV program/ song I read/ watched/ heard because....) • Connections to the world (This reminds me of what is happening in Iraq because....) • Ah ha's (Oh, this really means....)
