

Let's Talk about Books

TEKS: 2.3(C) The student will ask and answer relevant questions.

These questions will help spark rich literature discussions for your students. Have your students create a Questioning Kit.

Provide your students with a manila envelope and a label titled “_____’s Questioning Kit.”

Also, provide students with Question Cards that will be cut apart and stored inside their envelopes.

During discussion time, the students can pull out a question card and that will help start the conversation about the story.

Question Cards:

Tell me what you already knew about...	What do you predict...?
How can you tell that...?	How are _____ and _____ alike?
List examples of ...	How are _____ and _____ different?
What do you think would happen if...?	Summarize...
What are some possible reasons for...?	What new information did you find out in the pages you read today?
